Pakistan Humanitarian Forum INGOs meet the Government deadline to complete INGO Registration by 30th November with the Ministry of Interior

PHF Representatives met Minister of Interior Mr. Chaudhry Nisar Ali Khan on Monday 30th November to share that PHF's 54 members successfully submitted INGO Registration applications to MOI in accordance with the Government's policy for 'Regulation of International Non-Governmental Organisations in Pakistan'.

PHF thanked the Minister and MOI staff for their support and facilitation throughout the process.

PHF representatives look forward to working with the Government's counterparts during the next phase of the INGO registration process while MOI deliberate on decisions within the timeframe set by the Government and ensure that INGO programmes and services that annually reach 27 million people in the most vulnerable communities continue.
