The European Union will be able to produce enough vaccines to achieve its target for immunity of its adult population by the middle of July, the EU executive's vaccine task force chief said.

Johnson & Johnson COVID vaccinations can restart, US health regulators have said, after the shots' rollout was paused due to worries over blood clotting.

Researchers are calling for people struggling to regain their sense of smell after falling ill with COVID-19 to undergo "smell training" rather than being treated with steroids. This is a process that involves sniffing different odours over a period of months to retrain the brain to recognise different smells.

National Updates

- Although the Government of Pakistan is yet to acquire more vaccines for Coronavirus, it is still hoping to vaccinate at least 70 million people by the end of this year.
- Three planes of Pakistan International Airlines (PIA) carrying a consignment of one million doses of COVID-19 vaccine have left Beijing for Pakistan as the country sees a sharp increase in new Coronavirus cases. Another consignment of two million doses of COVID-19 vaccines will also be transported from China by the national flag carrier on April 29.
- National Command and Operation Center (NCOC) said the national rate of positivity of COVID-19 infections has reached 9.62% in Pakistan with a total of 89,219 active cases, of which there are 4,862 patients in critical condition.
- Overall COVID-19 positivity was highest in Azad Jammu & Kashmir (AJK) at 13.31%, followed by Islamabad at 12.60%, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa at 12.40%, Balochistan 12.06%, Punjab at 11.26%, Sindh 5.62%, and Gilgit Baltistan at 1.50%.
- Islamabad's Pakistan Institute of Medical Sciences (Pims) has "reached its maximum capacity" to admit and treat COVID-19 patients, its joint executive director has said.
- A number of universities across Pakistan suspended their physical classes after Coronavirus metrics across the country rose.
- In KP, the administration of Mardan has imposed a complete lockdown in the district with immediate effect for one week — extendable to an indefinite period — due to the prevailing surge in COVID-19 cases.
- Punjab health minister Dr Yasmin Rashid has said the province had made a commitment to the NCOC to increase its vaccination dispensation to around 35,000 over-50-year old people in the province to control exponential increase in the Coronavirus infectivity rate. She said oxygen availability in Punjab's hospitals was satisfactory.
- Sindh government announced that all schools, colleges and universities will remain closed in the province due to the rising coronavirus cases in the provinces and the government offices will operate with an essential staff of 20%.
